Great American Hypocrites Toppling The

Greenwald's Great American Hypocrites is an attempt to paint the American Republican Party as indulgent in hypocrisy. He pins down the conservative rhetoric with five devices: 1) The John Wayne Syndrome, 2) How Great American Hypocrites Feed Off One Another, 3) Tough Guise, 4) Wholesome Family Men and 5) Small-Government Tyrants.

Great American Hypocrites is the best book I've read on how the media works since Neil Postman's Amusing Ourselves to Death: Public Discourse in the Age of Show Business. In some ways, I think it's an even more important read for conservatives than it is for liberals -- at least for conservatives, like yours truly, who put principle before party.
