Incoterms® is a vital part of International Trade because they clearly state which tasks, costs and risks are associated with the buyer and the seller. The Incoterm® states when the seller's costs and risks are transferred onto the buyer. It is also important to understand that not all rules apply in all cases.

One of the main purposes of the Incoterms rules is to define the different roles of the parties in relation to the contract of carriage. Under the terms starting with the letter C or D, it is for the seller to conclude the contract with the carrier. In contrast, under the terms starting with the letter E or F, it is for the buyer to do so.
