Sapphos Leap Erica Jong

The Sappho that Erica Jong offers up in her historical fantasy "Sappho's Leap" is as hooked on slaps and tickles as Cole Porter's archetypal male. And Jong's fans wouldn't have it any other way. The author of the sexual-revolution classic "Fear of Flying" (1973) has a reputation to uphold, and she rises to the occasion by imagining Sappho as an updated compilation of every Jongian heroine ...

Sappho's Leap by Erica Jong

Erica Jong has written three books that used historical or literary figures as their basis (Sappho's Leap, Serenissima, and Fanny). All three were enjoyable, imaginative and well researched. Sappho's Leap is the story of Sappho's odyssey as she grows from teenager to a grandmother provides a fantastical tale of the many adventures she had along the way.
