The Cleaner Of Chartres Salley

The Cleaner of Chartres is about the quiet Agnes, found in a basket by a farmer.

The slow and overwritten novel jumps from the present to Agnes past where we learn surprisingly little considering the mountain pages we had to get through for the information. I stopped reading this book at least a dozen times telling myself to just give up.

Vickers's new novel,
The Cleaner of Chartres, belies the subtle complexities of her story. On a literal level, illiterate Agnes Morel is a simple, thirty-five-year-old cleaning lady who "mopped, dusted and polished her way round the cathedral."
