COVID-19 changed the way VCs operate due to lower valuations, deferred deals, and new models. Most investors hit the pause button, but a few global VCs are betting on the India story.

Why VCs continue to bet on the India story despite COVID-19

At first, I steered clear of Hemingway's short stories; on the whole, I am not a big fan of short stories. They're over too fast, for one thing, and add to this a professor I had along the way who likened every short story to the archetypical story of Adam and Eve, and my interest in the short story form evaporated like yesterday's rainwater.
